HEALTH CARE COUNCIL

ANNUAL REPORT

2024 / 2025

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

“As we celebrate our 30th year, the Nashville Health Care Council continues to serve as a trusted convener and catalyst for progress across the healthcare ecosystem. From the beginning, our mission has been to foster collaboration, innovation, and leadership development that advance healthcare both here in Nashville and around the world.

Over the past three decades, we have created unique opportunities for leaders of every level to connect, learn, and share perspectives on the challenges and possibilities shaping our industry. Through dynamic programs, exclusive forums, and thought-provoking discussions, we’ve worked to ensure that ideas turn into action and that Nashville remains at the forefront of healthcare transformation.

This anniversary is not only a moment to celebrate what we have achieved together, but also a call to look forward. As we prepare for the next 30 years, we remain deeply committed to creating spaces where leaders ignite ideas, forge partnerships, and drive innovation that improves outcomes and strengthens the healthcare system for generations to come.”

GROWING AND ATTRACTING BUSINESS

NASHVILLE AS THE PREMIER MARKET

Since 1995, when Nashville's healthcare industry generated $3.7 billion in income and supported 53,000 jobs, the Council has been instrumental in driving the city's rise as a global healthcare capital. Through exclusive engagement with national and international policymakers, industry innovators, and thought leaders, the Council continues to strengthen Nashville's position as the destination of choice for healthcare talent, companies, and investment.

Three decades later, the impact of that vision is clear—what began as a regional economic force has evolved into a global network of influence, collaboration, and innovation that continues to shape the future of healthcare.

THE STATE OF HEALTHCARE

THE HEALTHCARE CITY ON THE HILL

The Nashville Health Care Council's second annual Council-wide Washington, D.C. Delegation marked a historic milestone, bringing 90 senior healthcare executives to the nation's capital. This landmark event fostered direct conversations with policymakers, staffers, and influencers, addressing the most critical topics shaping the future of the U.S. healthcare system. The delegation created a unique, two-way dialogue between Capitol Hill and healthcare leaders, advancing collaboration on solutions to healthcare's most pressing challenges, ensuring the Healthcare City's influential voice in national policy discussions.

C-SUITE INSIGHTS

SHAPING HEALTHCARE'S FUTURE THROUGH INTIMATE LEADERSHIP CONVERSATIONS

The Council's C-Suite Dinner Series offers a thoughtfully curated experience designed for intimate discussions among top healthcare executives. These private gatherings create a unique space for executive-level peers to engage in meaningful dialogue on the industry's most critical issues. This year, notable guests of honor included CEO of CareBridge, Puneet Singh; President & CEO of Currax Pharmaceuticals, George Hampton; Chief Financial Officer of athenahealth, Tom Cowhey; CEO of Surgery Partners, Eric Evan; CEO of TeamHealth, Leif Murphy; and CEO of Acadia Healthcare Chris Hunter. The focus is on creating impactful conversations in a more personal, leadership-driven setting.

COLLABORATION AND CONNECTION

Throughout the year, members come together at exclusive networking receptions to cultivate meaningful relationships within Nashville's vibrant healthcare ecosystem.

CELEBRATING A NEW COHORT OF VISIONARY SEASONED EXECUTIVES IN HEALTHCARE

2025 COUNCIL FELLOWS

The Nashville Health Care Council Fellows program welcomed its 2025 cohort of 27 executives representing every corner of the health care industry. Over four months, Council Fellows explored the forces reshaping health care, built connections across sectors, and sharpened the leadership skills needed to guide organizations through change.

2025 COUNCIL FELLOWS

Since its founding in 2013, the Fellows program has become a hallmark of collaboration, preparing leaders to tackle the challenges of cost, equity, innovation, and sustainability. This year's experience underscored why Nashville is known as The Health Care City: a place where candid conversations and bold ideas fuel progress.

A YEAR LONG 30TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

For three decades, the Nashville Health Care Council has championed the people, ideas, and collaborations that have made Nashville The Healthcare City. This year, our 30th anniversary was more than a milestone—it was a yearlong celebration of the Council's enduring impact and the city's unmatched influence on the global health care landscape.

From Mayor Freddie O'Connell's proclamation of Nashville Health Care Week during our third installment of Sessions to landmark programming and national storytelling, the Council has continued to amplify Nashville's healthcare story and the leaders shaping its future.

While we're proud of the impact we've made in our 30th year, it's our members' stories—their vision, connection, and lasting legacy—that truly define our collective impact.

Here's what they had to say.

"The Nashville Health Care Council has been the catalyst for turning ideas into movements. By connecting executive leaders in the community with peers and innovators across biotech, data science, and health policy, the Council is creating the ecosystem that allows us to think boldly."

AMY WARE
REGIONAL VICE PRESIDENT,
ONCOLOGY, HCA HEALTHCARE
SARAH CANNON CANCER NETWORK

"Being a member of the Nashville Health Care Council has been extraordinarily powerful for SpecialtyCare's Allied Health platform. The collaboration has accelerated our ability to create meaningful value between all of our stakeholders; providers, payers and patients."

SAM WEINSTEIN
CEO, SPECIALTYCARE

"The Nashville Healthcare Council has been such an important part of my career. As a Council Fellow I have also created meaningful interactions that have helped me think differently, bolder and bigger about what the future of healthcare can be."

MARTY BONICK
PRESIDENT AND CEO, ARDENT HEALTH

"The Nashville Health Care Council has deep roots in the birthplace of healthcare at scale and many of the significant digital healthcare advancements our industry has seen. We have long appreciated the role the Council plays in visioning the future and driving thought leadership, encouraging new entrepreneurs and advancing the conversations around healthcare delivery and access."
