

Darin J. Gordon

Biography

Darin Gordon is the former Director of Tennessee's Medicaid program - TennCare, a $12+ billion health care enterprise that provides services to over 1.5 million Tennesseans. Gordon has over 27 years of experience in public health care finance, policy, and operations. He is a nationally recognized thought leader on Medicaid and health care policy, known for his expertise in delivery system transformation, value-based purchasing, and managed care. As the longest-serving Director of TennCare, Gordon served with both Democrat and Republican Governors.

Gordon's contributions have extended beyond Tennessee as well. He has also been involved in health care policy and innovation nationally through consultations with over 35 states; in his leadership roles as a founding member and President of the National Association of Medicaid Directors; and his involvement in a variety of National Governors Association, health care related initiatives and task forces. Gordon's involvement has also extended internationally with consultations with a variety of health officials from other countries.

Gordon is an Operating Partner with Cressey & Company and a member of the Distinguished Executive Council. He is also a Director of Addus Homecare, Upperline Health, Advanced Care Partners, Public Partnerships LLC and HHA Exchange. He also serves as the chair for the Inner Circle Autism Network Board, a member of the National Academy for State Health Policy Board, Duke-Margolis/West Health State Payment Reform Advisory Board, and MITRE Health Advisory Committee. Gordon previously served two terms as a Commissioner of the Medicaid and CHIP Payment and Access Commission (MACPAC) which is charged with advising Congress, the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and States on Medicaid and CHIP policy.

After leaving public service, Gordon founded Gordon & Associates, LLC providing solutions to complex health care issues, strategic planning, and consulting to clients throughout the country and across the entire health care ecosystem including government, payers, providers, and other consulting practices.

Gordon is a Founding Partner of Speire Healthcare Strategies, LLC where he advises executives on navigating and responding to the continually changing health policy landscape and assists his clients with designing and implementing successful solutions.