

Speaker Bio

Robert G. McNeill, who goes by Bobby, is an oral and maxillofacial surgeon, healthcare regulator, educator, and law student whose work sits at the intersection of clinical care, patient safety, governance, and healthcare business strategy. He is active in clinical practice and is licensed to practice both medicine and dentistry in Texas.

He is the managing partner of a multidisciplinary surgical practice in Dallas and chairs the Anesthesia Committee for the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners. He also serves as an adjunct assistant professor at Texas A&M College of Dentistry and as chair of the American Dental Association Council on Members Insurance and Retirement Programs.

Dr. McNeill earned both medical and dental degrees, as well as an Executive MBA in Healthcare Management from the University of Texas at Dallas. He is a former Senior Executive Fellow at Harvard Kennedy School and is currently pursuing his JD at Northeastern University, focusing on health law, regulation, healthcare consolidation, and the protection of clinical decision-making.
