

Brian Tanquilut is a Managing Director and Senior Equity Analyst at Jefferies where he leads the firm's research team that covers 40+ Healthcare Services and Healthcare Information Technology stocks. Brian has been with Jefferies for 23 years, 21 of which have been spent covering the Healthcare sector, and he has been named a ranked analyst by Institutional Investor Magazine/Extel and the Wall Street Journal. His team's areas of focus currently include sub-sectors such as acute care hospitals; drug distributors and retail pharmacies; specialty pharmacies and infusion; post-acute care, including home health, hospice, and inpatient rehabilitation; diagnostic imaging; ambulatory surgery centers; behavioral health; durable medical equipment distribution; seniors housing; consumer health, which includes physical therapy, optometry, behavioral therapy, and dental; healthcare staffing and education; value-based care; and Healthcare Information Technology. Brian obtained his MBA from Vanderbilt's Owen Graduate School of Management.