

James Porter Speaker Bio

James serves as Vice President of Provider Partnerships for Monogram Health, the nation's leading multispecialty provider of in-home care and benefit management for complex patients diagnosed with multiple chronic conditions. In this role, he manages strategic relationships and operational integration across health systems, primary care physicians, end-of-life care teams, and community specialists including nephrology, cardiology and pulmonology. James's career spans roles at Ancore Health, R1 RCM, The Advisory Board Company and FTI Consulting. He resides in Nashville with his wife and four sons.